

PRINCETON FEARS SCARLET FEVER

Disease Got Start in Town
Through Milk, Inspector
Says.

Health Inspector Dr. E. N. Bergen, of Princeton township, stated last night that he would not be astonished if Princeton had thirty or forty more scarlet fever cases. He also said he believed it had been caused by impure milk. A number of milkmen had their permits taken away from them Wednesday night.

Three children named Traeger had eight cases of the disease and were not very ill. Their mother continued to send them to school for three weeks until two of her other children were also taken down. As the time for exposure is not up, many more cases may result.

The condition of Dr. Bergen's son is worse than any of the others. All of the children now known to have the disease are progressing nicely.

It is authoritatively stated that there is not a single case of scarlet fever in the university.

'SAVE ME--A MOB IS AFTER ME!'

Pilot With Brainstorm Appeals to Police and Is Sent to Bellevue.

"There is a mob after me, trying to tear off my clothes. Protect me, save me!"

A wild-eyed man uttering this appeal startled Sgt. Kelly on the deck of the Elizabeth street station today. "Another one of those brainstorms," thought the sergeant. He tried to soothe the startled one, but he wouldn't be reasoned with. He looked apprehensively back at the door and insisted that there was a mob outside waiting to tear him to tatters. He finally told the sergeant he was James J. Murray, a pilot, thirty-four years old, of No. 657 Fifty-seventh street, Brooklyn. The patrol wagon took him to Bellevue.

TWO SCHOONERS HIT CORNFIELD LIGHTSHIP.

Beacon for Mariners Off Connecticut Shore Tears Away Head-gear of One Vessel.

NEW LONDON, Conn., April 12.—The schooner Nat Meador, Capt. Blaisdell, South Amboy for Hallowell, Me., was in collision with the Cornfield Lightship early today and lost her head gear. The Meador put in here for repairs and Capt. Blaisdell reported that soon after his vessel collided with the lightship another schooner, the name of which is not known, also struck the lightship. The latter apparently was not greatly damaged and is anchored three miles off this port.

The damage, it is said, sustained by the lightship has not been ascertained.

HEAD CRUSHED BY ELEVATOR.—GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 12.—Luther J. Stevenson, general manager of the Commercial Credit Company, was instantly killed in an elevator accident in the Murray Building last night. His head was crushed between the elevator and the floor.

HOPE HAS HIT the Bullseye with Wholesale Tailoring

Promptly at 9 o'clock yesterday morning the first Subscription Wholesale Tailoring opened at the Hope Corner. Among the first to be measured were prominent downtown lawyers and brokers. At 9:45 the Chambers St. Annex, which has been converted into an elaborate Tailoring establishment, was crowded to fullest capacity.

There are many novel features. Before any measurements are taken the customer is weighed, his height taken and other details unusual in tailoring.

The variety of cloths is astonishing. Spring Suits, Summer Suits, Suits in Serges and Worsteds, Homespun and Tweeds, the new brownish stuffs—no matter what the height or weight of the customer; there are no extra charges.

All Are $14.10

A most remarkable showing is the Prince Albert, Tuxedo and Full Dress Coats and Vestings, also $14.10. Livery and Chauffeur suits, as well as Uniforms for owners and officers of yachts. Uniforms for Hotels and Institutions, the same universal price, $14.10, and if a customer is not more than satisfied the clothes will not be delivered to him.

The Trouserings made to measure at $4.40 are no less astonishing than the other fabrics. During the afternoon hours the newly launched Tailor Shop was running along with a "full house."

The Subscription opened yesterday at 9 A. M. and closes next Thursday at 6 P. M.

This Is the 2nd Day

Many of the choicest fabrics are ends of 3 1/2 to 10 yards; it would be well to "get there" as early as convenient, as there are no reserves or duplicates.

The entire frontage of the Stewart Building, from the main entrance on Broadway, around on Chambers St. to Ridley's Candy Store, is one great tailoring exposition of fabrics, models and other demonstrations. Even if you are not interested in new clothes, you should see this display.

Broadway, Cor. Chambers.
